Designed for presentation of food artistry and particular serving portions, the Tela series (right) of 12 1/4-inch plates, each with a different well size, ranging from 5 1/2 inches to 8 1/2 inches, allows chefs to spotlight sauces, sides, tastings, entrées and desserts, with room for painterly touches. Crafted by Fortessa of Fortaluxe superwhite, plate rims are etched in an organic web-like pattern. Catering to current culinary trends, the innovative Spoon Wall Caddy (below) offers a smart, convenient way to showcase tastings, appetizers and small-bite foods. The vertical, 18/10 stainless-steel, mirror-polished unit holds 39 4-inch tapas/tasting spoons, creating an eye-catching display that maximizes presentation and speeds up service at the buffet and communal table.
